

What is Color Guard?

Color Guard brings 'visual life and emotion' to music. The Color Guard uses dance, flags, sabers, rifles and props to bring the music of the marching band program to life.

ORGANIZATION

1. Membership consists of ninth through twelfth grade students.
2. Members specialize in color guard as an art form and sport. These may include all forms of equipment, prop and dance choreography.
3. Members develop qualities of leadership, organizational skills, proper conduct, and how to be a team player.

Can a student only participate in one semester?

- Yes, however note that a lot of the concepts introduced and taught during the fall semester are prerequisites to the information taught in the spring semester.

What is a typical year like?

- Color Guard is a year-long activity. During the first semester, the guard performs with the marching band during football season. The guard performs at every football game and at marching contests during the fall. During the spring, the guard is a competitive unit in an activity called Winter Guard in the Texas Color Guard Circuit and the Winter Guard International circuit. Each show is created to support the selected music.
